UNIVERSITY DEFENDED.

After the feading of both of these papers, Chancelor Kirland, secretary of the Association, made a few remarks, defending the position of the University of Virginia in this matter. The University, he said, has the advantage over the other Southern institutions because it is supported by the old State traditions. Teachers do not send men to the University of Virginia who should not be there.

there.

The question was further discussed by several members of the Association, after which the meeting adjourned till to-morrow morning at 9 ociock.

This afternoon the delegates visited Monticello, the Leander McCormick Observatory and other points of interest about Charlotteeville.

the Month of November.

November will begin a new epoch in the men's meetings at the Association Bullding. The evangelistic campaign of the fall and winter will begin to-morrow afternoon, when Rev. M. Ashby Jones, the popular pastor of Leigh-Street Baptist Church, will speak for the first of four Sunday afternoons. The meetings will be held at 4 o'clock, and the theme for to-morrow will be "The Logic of Life." Mr. Jones is a powerful and interesting speaker, and all men are most cordially invited to be present.

Secretary McKee will have charge of the boys meetings during November. Special effort will be put forth to make these meetings of unusual interest and attractiveness. The meeting will be held at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and the subject, "Where the River is Born," will interest every boy. The graphophone will assist in the opening song service.

Workers' Bible training class will meet at 5:15, taking up the new lessons entitled "The Bible and its Use," which will be continued for nine weeks. At the close of this class a personal workers' league will meet for the first time. All the members of the league are argsed to be present. Young men interested in the study of the Bible, or in training for personal work, whether members of the association or not, are cordially invited to join any of the Bible classes.

THE CONFESSIONAL.

Father Conway Delivers Impressive Discourse at Cathedral.

Discourse at Cathedral.

Father Conway, of New York, preached to another large audience at St. Peter's Cathedral last night. The edifice was packed to the doors, and hundreds eager to hear him were turned away.

The lecture was on sacramental repentance, or what is known as the confessional. Father Conway took his text from the twentieth chapter of St. John: "Peace be unto you * * * Receive the Holy Ghost. Whose sins ye shall forgive they are forgiven; whose sins ye shall retain they are retained."

The clergyman declared that these words of Jesus Christ evidently conferred upon the Apostles power over the sins of men, for such was clearly and obviously the sense of the Scripture.

Father Conway went into an explanation of the natural tendency of man at some time in his life to reveal his secrets, and said that Jesus Christ was sent by the Father to take away the sins of the world, and pointed to the fact that the Saviour rejoiced to see the Pharisce appreach. Faher Conway answered a great many questions bearing on the con-approach. Faher Conway answered a great many questions bearing on the confessional.
